Local Rose Society/Club _____

The purpose of this award is to honor a person from the Pacific Northwest District who has given exceptional dedication and a high level of contribution to the District over a number of years. He/She should be or has been an active member of the PNW District. A nominee would probably have been a local society board member or a rose show chair. The nominee would probably have attended the annual Fall Conference meetings, the District Conventions and/or Rose Shows. He/She might have been elected or appointed to District-level positions. He/She might be a judge, or a Consulting Rosarian, or Master Rosarian. A nominee might even have received the ARS Bronze and or Silver Honor Awards. The actual requirements are:

All nominees must be ARS members.

All nominees must belong to a local society within the PNW District.

The nominations for this award will be made by the Prizes & Awards Committee members and will be voted for by the same committee. If a tie occurs, the Prizes & Awards Chair will vote to break the tie OR the District Director.

Please list the contributions to the PNW District your nominee has given.
